E. S. WERNER
1270 BROADWAY
NEW YORK N. Y.

#452

CONVENTION.

The American Numismatic Association.

Chicago Ill. August 25th 1893.

Douglas Hall, Corner Thirtyfifth Street and Cottage Grove Ave

CONVENTION.

The American Numismatic Association.

Chicago Ill. August 25th 1893.

Douglas Hall, Corner Thirtyfifth Street and Cottage Grove Ave

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

I Call to Order. Promptly 10 A. M.

II Report of Committee on Credentials.
Geo. W. Rode, Chairman.

III Appointment of Standing Committees.

IV Roll Call.

V Reading of the Minutes.

VI Recess.

VII Report of the Committee on Rules.

VIII Communications.

IX Reports of Officers.

X Reports of Committees.

XI Unfinished Business.

XII New Business.

XIII Election of Officers.

Geo. F. Heath, Monroe Mich. Pres't.
O. W. Page, Waltham Mass. Sec'y.

Visiting brethren, members of the Press, and others interested in the science are cordially invited to meet with us.

PROGRAM.

I Is This your Science My Lords?
President's Address. Dr. GEO. F. HEATH, Monroe Mich.

II The Historical Value of Ancient Coins.
Rev. JEREMIAH ZIMMERMAN, Syracuse N. Y.

III The Convention of the Thirteen Silver Barons.
A. G. HEATON, Washington, D. C.

IV Coins, their Origin and Aid in Historical Research.
JOSEPH HOOPER, Port Hope, Ontario.

V On Chinese Tsien.
J. A. BRUDIN, New York City.

VI The Copper Coinage of France, with Historical Memoranda.
D. F. HOWORTH, F. S. A., Ashton-under-Lyne, England.

VII An Unrecorded Coinage. Describing the Striking of a quantity of Spanish Doubloons in New York, about 1821.
H. RUSSELL DROWNE, New York City.

VIII The Jetons of France.
GEORGE J. BAUER, Rochester, N. Y.

IX The Relative Fictitious Value of Coins during the past 25 years; with reference particularly to the Coins of the United States.
J. G. BINGHAM, McGrawville, N. Y.

X The Coinage of the Roman Empire.
PH. WHITEWAY, Christ Church, New Zealand.

XI The Preservation of Coins.
A. G. HEATON, Washington.

XII Odd Money that I have Met.
G. F. HEATH, M. D, Monroe.